

DANIELLE SHOCKEY

Danielle Shockey is the Chief Executive Officer of Girl Scouts of Central Indiana, which serves 29,000 girls in partnership with 12,000 adults across 45 counties in Indiana. A Girl Scout alum, Danielle's experience serving Indiana's youth spans a career of 20 years, including Deputy Superintendent of Public Instruction for the Indiana Department of Education, college dean, school principal and educator.

Danielle's experience at the Department of Education included leading the vision and operations of 22 distinctly different divisions such as College and Career Readiness, STEM, Career and Technical Education, special education, eLearning, federal grants, educator effectiveness, and school safety.

A nationally recognized leader in the Girl Scout Movement, Danielle serves on Girl Scouts of the USA's Strategic Advisory Committee and their STEM Pledge Advisory Board. She also serves on the Conner Prairie Education Task Group.

Danielle was recently recognized as a Woman of Influence by the IBJ and received the Indiana Women of Achievement Award for Distinction in Innovation and Leadership for Young Women from Ball State University.

She has a Bachelor of Science in Elementary Education from Ball State University and a Master of Science in Educational Leadership from Indiana University.