

SENATOR JEAN BREAUX

State Senator Jean Breaux was elected to the Indiana State Senate in December of 2006, and elected Assistant Democratic Leader by the Senate Democratic Caucus in 2012. Senator Breaux formerly served as Assistant Democratic Caucus Chair.

Senator Breaux is a member of the Indiana Recycling Market Development Board and the State Workforce Innovation Council. She is appointed to serve on the Health and Human Services Committee of the National Conference of State Legislatures, a bipartisan organization that serves the legislators and staffs of the nation's 50 states, its commonwealths and territories.

In 2009, Senator Breaux was selected to attend the Program for Emerging Political Leaders hosted by the State Legislative Leaders Foundation and the Darden School of Business at the University of Virginia.

Senator Breaux attended Boston University and graduated from Indiana Wesleyan University with a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration. She also earned professional certificates from the Economic Development Institute and the International Economic Development Council.